OVERVIEW

- Summary
- Mills and Bourdieu: Convergent Themes
- Class and Domination
- Portrait of Mills’s Sociology
- From Mills to Bourdieu
- Traditional and Organic Public Sociology
CONVERGENT THEMES

• Reaction to Philosophy
CONVERGENT THEMES

• Reaction to Philosophy
• Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
CONVERGENT THEMES

- Reaction to Philosophy
- Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
- Focus on Domination (Weber)
CONVERGENT THEMES

• Reaction to Philosophy
• Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
• Focus on Domination (Weber)
• Intellectuals and Sociology of Knowledge
CONVERGENT THEMES

• Reaction to Philosophy
• Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
• Focus on Domination (Weber)
• Intellectuals and Sociology of Knowledge
• Critique of Sociology and its Institutions
CONVERGENT THEMES

• Reaction to Philosophy
• Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
• Focus on Domination (Weber)
• Intellectuals and Sociology of Knowledge
• Critique of Sociology and its Institutions
• Becoming Traditional Public Intellectuals
CONVERGENT THEMES

• Reaction to Philosophy
• Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
• Focus on Domination (Weber)
• Intellectuals and Sociology of Knowledge
• Critique of Sociology and its Institutions
• Becoming Traditional Public Intellectuals
• Contempt for the Organic Intellectual
CONVERGENT THEMES

• Reaction to Philosophy
• Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
• Focus on Domination (Weber)
• Intellectuals and Sociology of Knowledge
• Critique of Sociology and its Institutions
• Becoming Traditional Public Intellectuals
• Contempt for the Organic Intellectual
• Response to the end of Radical Times (30s and 60s)
CONVERGENT THEMES

- Reaction to Philosophy
- Critical Ambivalence toward Marxism
- Focus on Domination (Weber)
- Intellectuals and Sociology of Knowledge
- Critique of Sociology and its Institutions
- Becoming Traditional Public Intellectuals
- Contempt for the Organic Intellectual
- Response to the end of Radical Times (30s and 60s)
- Inspiration to Political Movements?
CLASS AND DOMINATION

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BOURDIEU [Distinction, State Nobility]</th>
<th>MILLS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Dominant Class [Economic-Cultural]</td>
<td>Power Elite (1956)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[Education]</td>
<td>[Economic, political, Military]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Middle Class</td>
<td>White Collar (1951)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Working Class</td>
<td>New Men of Labor (1948)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

POLITICAL PROJECTS?
PORTRAIT OF MILLS’S SOCIOLOGY

GRAND THEORY

Social Structure

Craftworker

Milieu

ABSTRACTED EMPIRICISM
PORTRAIT OF MILLS’S SOCIOLOGY

GRAND THEORY

Craftworker

ABSTRACTED EMPIRICISM

Social Structure

Public Issues

Milieu

Personal Troubles
POORTRAIT OF MILLS’S SOCIOLOGY

GRAND THEORY

- Craftworker
- Independent Intellectual

ABSTRACTED EMPIRICISM

- Social Structure
- Public Issues
- Milieu
- Personal Troubles

SOCIETY
PROBLEMATICS

SOCIOLOGICAL IMAGINATION

POLITICAL IMAGINATION
PROBLEMATICS

SOCILOGICAL IMAGINATION

PROFESSIONAL

CRITICAL

POLITICAL IMAGINATION
PROBLEMATICS

SOCIOLOGICAL IMAGINATION

PROFESSIONAL

CRITICAL

POLITICAL IMAGINATION

POLICY
PROBLEMATICs

SOCIOLOGICAL IMAGINATION

PROFESSIONAL

CRITICAL

POLITICAL IMAGINATION

POLICY

PUBLIC
  a. Traditional
  b. Organic
PUBLIC SOCIOLOGIES

[Traditional Public Sociologies]

[Bourdieu, Beauvoir, Mills]

[Organic Public Sociologies]

[Gramsci, Fanon, Collins, Freire]